

Foodie Agenda: Spooky Halloween Menus, Rare Whiskey, & More

By Sarah Medina

Your guide to the tastiest food happenings going down this week. Bon appetit!

Big 4 and Anchor Brewing Company Launch Quarterly Beer Release Series

Two local icons will pair up for a quarterly beer release series, beginning with the launch of Anchor's Christmas Ale. On November 3, Big 4 will host an exclusive four-course release dinner that will unveil Anchor's signature holiday brew, in addition to other favorites, paired with four delectable courses created by Executive Chef Kevin Scott. Set in the restaurant's Central Pacific Room showcasing original artifacts, historical photographs, and memorabilia from California's unique history, guests will be treated to a fun presentation led by Big 4's resident historian, Ron Henggeler, and Anchor Brewing Company's historian Dave Burkhardt. Tickets are \$125 per person, get them here. 1075 California, San Francisco