“The best way to spread Christmas cheer is singing loud and drinking lots of beer.” Yeah, that’s what Buddy the Elf was supposed to say, but then kids ruined the whole thing, just like they’ll ruin your Christmas when you realize they got all the good loot and you got socks. Again. Still, thanks to these 31 SF bars, all of which are doing you the kind favor of being open on a day when pretty much everything is closed, now you can escape your family to enjoy the only Christmas gift you really need: booze. “I’m drinking! I’m in a bar and I’m driiiiiiiinking!”
